COACH'S THOUGHTS

Catherine Dorsher

2011- 2015

Catherine Dorsher is currently residing in her hometown of Grand Forks, ND. After graduating from UND with a degree in Graphic Design and New Art Media, Dorsher became a graphic designer at JLG Architects here in Grand Forks.

“I loved being a part of UND Softball because it gave me a great support system and taught me valuable lessons on and off the field. I owe a great deal to the game! One piece of advice for the current athletes; take it all in. There is a lot to learn and it goes by quick!”

What is one of your favorite memories being a part of the UND Softball team?

One of my favorite memories of being at UND is when we played at PSU my Freshman year and were in a rain delay for most of the day. During one of the delays we had a dance-off between us and the Portland State team – needless to say – we won the dance off and both games that day.

What do you love most about being a student-athlete here at UND?

I love the relationships you build with all of the other student - athletes on campus and going to each other's games!

What kind of pre-game rituals/superstitions do you have?

I always draw something in the dirt/grass before each inning. That's about it though!

What do you love most about the game of softball?

I love the bonds you make with the teammates you play with. Also, there is no better feeling than battling with someone and winning; whether it's pitching or hitting.
