10- UND's true road wins this season (10-15)

11- As of May 7, Number of pitchers that have thrown multiple no-hitters this season in Division I, including Kaylin VanDomelen.

10- Number of states that will host a UND softball game in the regular season

25- Single-season school record for wins this season

34- Number of games played before first home game (Mar. 30)

41- VanDomelen career pitching wins (2nd at UND)

558- Kaylin VanDomelen career strikeouts (2nd at UND, Big Sky record).

ON TAP

North Dakota is the No. 3 seed heading into the Big Sky Conference Tournament, a six-team field set for May 10-13 in Ogden, Utah on the campus of Weber State University. Sacramento State laid claim to the top seed with WSU at No. 2. UND will get sixth-seeded Northern Colorado in the Thursday opener for both teams at 1:00 p.m. Central in the double-elimination tournament.

ALL-CONFERENCE QUARTET

North Dakota boasted four players on the recently announced All-Big Sky Conference teams. Kaylin VanDomelen was a unanimous selection to the first team once again while Angel Love, Marina Marzolino and Taylor Nadler were all honorable mention selections.

HOME SWEET HOME (FINALLY)

North Dakota finished its home schedule with a 5-1 record at home (3-0 at Alerus Center and 2-1 at Apollo Park). UND's first home games at its regular home facility didn't come until the final series, May 4-5 vs. Idaho State.

HOLY HANNAH

Hannah Bergh, with her three-hitter last Tuesday at South Dakota State, now has a team-leading 11 wins this season and has moved up on the career wins mark at UND. She now has 33, good for fifth.

SAVING THE DAY

Kaylin VanDomelen has registered seven saves this season to pace the Big Sky Conference in that category. She is among the NCAA leaders in that stat as she sits tied for fourth nationally.

DOING IT SOLO

Kaylin VanDomelen took matters into her own hands in the April 27 game one win at Sacramento State. The senior not only fired a shutout-- the 14th of her career-- but also hit a solo homer, the only UND run in the win. The victory was her 39th all-time, second-most in the North Dakota history books.

DEJA'S VIEW

Juniro Deja Miller entered midway through the final game of the regular season in right field and promptly made a difference. She'd triple and drive in a run in her only at bat (her first career triple) then snared a screaming liner down the line with one down in the seventh to help preserve the win.

MONTH OF MAYHOOD

Lexi Mayhood has an active six-game hitting streak, five of those coming in the month of May. Since returning to the starting shortstop gig, she's upped her batting average 37 points and was 4-for-8 in the series against Idaho State last week.

SACTIME

UND's 1-0 win in the opener at Sacramento State (April 27) was the first-ever Fighting Hawk win in Sacramento (1-8). UND now has 10 true road wins on the season.

BIG TIME IN THE BIG SKY

Taylor Nadler has been swinging a hot bat, especially in the conference portion of the schedule. In league play, Nadler is hitting at a .356 clip, including team-highs with 21 hits, 12 runs, three homers and 14 RBIs. She reached base in 14 of 18 conference games this season.

SETTING A NEW STANDARD

North Dakota already has 25 wins on the season heading into tournament play, owners of a new single-season wins mark for the program. UND's previous program mark for wins in a season was 24, set back in 2000. UND hit 23 wins last season and also set a program-mark for Big Sky wins with nine, both surpassed this season.

20-win seasons at UND

2018	25-26
2000	24-25
2017	23-32
2007	23-28
2002	23-33
1987	21-25
1995	21-18
2001	21-28
1994	20-21
2005	20-29
2011	20-35

TWO-FOR

Kaylin VanDomelen picked up two more shutouts in the series sweep of Montana Mar. 30-31. She allowed just eight hits in the 14 innings while striking out 19 against just one walk. She now has 14 shutouts to her credit in her career, second-most in UND history.

THREE'S A CHARM

UND's three-game sweep of Montana Mar. 30-31 marked the first-ever three-game conference sweep for the Fighting Hawks in the program's history. UND had two other Big Sky series sweeps, shortened two-game sweeps over Portland State (2014) and Idaho State (2017).

FOUR!

VanDomelen was named the Big Sky Conference's Pitcher of the Week for a whopping fourth time this season on April 2. She now has 10 for her standout career.

HIGH FIVE!

North Dakota's series win over Southern Utah made it five consecutive Big Sky series wins, dating back to last season. That streak was snapped at Weber State April 10.

YOU CAN CALL ME AL

North Dakota called the friendly indoor confines of the Alerus Center "home" for the Montana series, Mar. 30-31 and the AL was a gracious host. North Dakota out-scored the Griz 10-1 in sweeping all three games, vaulting into first place in the Big Sky Conference standings at that point.

KVD OVER 500

Senior Kaylin VanDomelen now has 558 career strikeouts, most-ever by a Big Sky Conference pitcher. She moves into second place in the UND record books, passing Mikki Cochrane. Tara Petersen owns the UND record with 932 Ks.

OPENING SERIES SUCCESS

North Dakota picked up a series win in the Big Sky Conference's opening weekend, the first time UND has taken the series in the league's first week. Prior to this year, the Fighting Hawks were 2-13 in the first five years in the conference during the opening weekend.

COMEBACK FOR THE AGES

North Dakota trailed Portland State, 9-1, before rallying to score 10 unanswered runs in the final three innings in an 11-9 win Mar. 24 in Portland. It marks the largest comeback in UND's Division I era and largest comeback win since at least 1992 (early research shows that it could be the largest margin ever overcome to grab a win in school history but some complete boxscores are unavailable prior to 1992).

NADLER'S KNOCKS

Taylor Nadler homered twice in UND's big comeback win at Portland State Mar. 24. She hit a solo homer in the first to give UND a 1-0 lead but the Vikings piled on nine runs. She'd homer again and would drive in four runs as UND scored 10 unanswered for an improbable 11-9 victory.

PERFECT GAME GEM

Kaylin VanDomelen twirled her first career perfect game Mar. 9 vs. Santa Clara, striking out a career-best 14 in the win. She needed just 64 pitches (49 for strikes) in the victory, striking out the side on three different occasions.

NO-NO, NO-NO, NO-NO

Kaylin VanDomelen's perfect game gave her a third no-hitter in her career and second in a two-week span. She threw her second career no-hitter Feb. 24 against Cleveland State, going 7.0 innings with seven strikeouts. She also earned her 10th career shutout in the win. Her last no-no hitter came against UCONN in March of last season.

ONCE, TWICE, THREE TIMES A LADY

Kaylin VanDomelen was named the Big Sky Conference Pitcher of the Week for the third consecutive time on March 13th. In doing so, she became just the second-ever player to earn three straight weekly honors. Her latest performance included a 14-strikeout perfect game over Santa Clara (Mar. 9) for her second no-hitter this season. She has four total Big Sky Pitcher of the Week honors this season.

PICA PICKIN UP DUBS

Nikki Pica won both games of the series in the wins at Portland State, Mar. 23-24. She nabbed her first career win with a relief outing on Mar. 23. She went 3.1 innings in that game, allowing just one hit and striking out three as North Dakota scored four late runs to open up a 5-5 tie and gave North Dakota the win. A day later, she came on in relief in the first inning to get the final out there and later pitched the sixth with the game tied and into the seventh with UND leading to grab another win. She went 2.0 innings, allowing five runs.

SEVEN-WIN STREAK

North Dakota rattled off seven straight wins from Feb. 24 to Mar. 3 this season, its longest win streak in the program's Division I history. It ranks as the second-longest winning streak ever at UND, following a 13-game streak back in 2000.

YOU TRIPLIN'

Angel Love has six triples already this season, sixth-most in all of NCAA Division I. She's done so with three different games with two three-baggers. Her season total is already third-best in the UND record books and it puts her eighth in the career category as well.

ANGEL'S IN THE OUTFIELD

Angel Love hit .500 in the first weekend (seven hits), followed that up with four hits, including two homers in week two and again had seven hits in week three (.500). She paces the team in triples (6), homers (6), runs (31), slugging percentage (.521), and steals (11).

COMMON ZINS

Michaela Zins homered for the first time in her career in the 4-3 win over Cleveland State on Feb. 25. The senior has three extra-base hits to her credit of her eight career hits (2 doubles, 1 HR).

I'M LOVE-IN' IT

Angel Love hit two homers at Arizona State, the firsts of her career. She also stole two bases and tallied four hits on the weekend.

YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Alicia Young whacked a double and a homer en route to a career-high five RBIs in the 9-5 win at Tennessee State on Feb. 26. She reached base three times and also stole a base in the win.

HONOR ROLL

Both VanDomelen and Love earned Big Sky Conference weekly honors for their performances in week three at the Belmont/Tennessee Winter Warmup. VanDomelen won two games, saved two more and threw her second career no-hitter while Love hit five extra-base hits, including four triples and scored seven times in the five games.

NADLER'S NOD

Senior Taylor Nadler was named the Big Sky Conference Player of the Week after driving in 10 runs in five games in the opening week of the season at Charleston Southern. The senior hit safely in all five games, extending her hitting streak to seven. She drove in runs in four of the games, including two RBI hits in the first inning alone of Sunday's win at South Carolina State.

TAY TEN

Senior Taylor Nadler racked up 10 RBI in the opening weekend, notching three in a game on two different occasions. She had at least one RBI in all but one game and extended her hitting streak to seven straight, dating back to last season.

MAYHOOD UP TO NO GOOD

Lexi Mayhood whacked her first career dinger Feb. 9 against Towson. She totaled three hits in the opening weekend to surpass her hit total from all of last season.

OFF TO OGDEN

The Big Sky Conference will host the conference tournament in Ogden, Utah on the campus of Weber State University. WSU also hosted last season's tournament in the old format of regular season champion hosting the six-team postseason tournament. This year, league officials went to a pre-determined site. UND is in the final season in the Big Sky Conference and will move to The Summit League next season.

JORDAN STEVENS

HEAD COACH

Year at UND: 4th

Collegiate experience: 12th year

Alma Mater: Bowling Green State, 2004

Union (NY)	1	32-8	.800
Valparaiso	4	131-96-1	.577

Jordan Stevens begins his fourth year as the head coach of the University of North Dakota softball program. UND Athletics Director Brian Faison announced that the former Valparaiso head coach was named head coach at UND on July 7, 2014.

UND's success on the diamond has continued to grow under Stevens' tutelage, as his teams have recorded more wins with each successive season. Last year, UND ripped off a program record for home wins and Big Sky wins on the way to the school's first-ever Big Sky Conference Tournament berth.

The team was led by Big Sky Pitcher of the Year Kaylin VanDomelen, who became a two-time member of the all-league first team. UND was just one win shy of the program record for victories.

The 2016 season also marked a milestone for UND softball, as the team picked up its first-ever All-Big Sky First Team honoree, in pitcher Kaylin VanDomelen. Additionally, in 2016 UND earned its first ever wins against opponents from the Big 12 (Iowa State, Feb. 14) and the ACC (Virginia, Feb. 20).

In his first season, North Dakota recorded twice as many wins from the previous season. The 2015 squad also set a program record, hitting 73 doubles on the year. The team also hit 47 home runs, which ranked second all-time in program history.

Stevens spent the previous four seasons as head coach at Valparaiso, where he guided the Crusaders to consecutive NCAA tournament appearances in 2012 and 2013. In his four years at the helm, Stevens posted a 131-96-1 record, as his teams never finished lower than third in either the regular season or conference tournament.

During his tenure at Valparaiso, Stevens coached 25 student-athletes to all-league honors, including eight first-team accolades and four all-region honors. Additionally, he recruited the 2012 Horizon League Newcomer of the Year, the 2013 Championship Batter and Pitcher of the Horizon League Tournament, and the 2014 Horizon League Co-Player of the Year.

In his first season with Valpo, Stevens guided the Crusaders to 34 victories, including a 13-game winning streak. In Horizon League play his team went 15-7, finishing just one-half game shy of the regular-season championship. The Crusaders' 2011 success was in large part due to their record-setting offensive output. Valpo paced the league in nine separate offensive categories, setting team single-season records for runs batted in (245) and home runs (49). Individually, Stevens coached seven league leaders, while two Crusaders broke Valpo's single-season RBIs record and three topped the previous single-season home runs mark. Seven players in all earned all-league recognition, as well as one all-region honoree.

The 2012 Crusaders re-wrote the program's record books, setting 14 new team single-season records and 14 new individual records. Stevens led Valpo to 42 victories that season, setting a program single-season record, and claimed the school's first women's Horizon League championship after going 19-5 in league play. The squad had five players earn postseason honors from the Horizon League, including the league's Newcomer of the Year and four first team all-league honorees. Three players also earned NFCA all-region honors as well.

Stevens then led the Crusaders on a dramatic run to the 2012 Horizon League Tournament Championship. After falling in the first game of the tournament, Valpo won five consecutive knockout games, the last three of which came in walk-off fashion, to claim the Horizon League Championship and the league's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. In the NCAA Tournament, Stevens led Valpo to within one out of a massive upset at No. 9/7 Louisville in the tournament opener before a walk-off homer, while the Crusaders also had the tying run on base in the seventh inning of their elimination game against Kentucky.

For the second consecutive year, the Crusaders went on a run to the Horizon League Championship, winning five-straight elimination games after losing their opener to claim the tournament crown. Having earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament for a second-straight season, Stevens led the Crusaders one step farther in 2013, as Valpo downed Central Michigan for its first NCAA tournament win in program history. Valpo won 29 games in the regular season, including a third-place finish within Horizon League play.

Prior to his time at Valparaiso, Stevens was the head coach at Union College, leading the Dutchwomen to their most successful season in program history. He led Union to a school-record-tying 32 victories en route to the team's first Liberty League regular-season title in five years and the program's first-ever league tournament championship.

Before becoming a head coach, Stevens spent a season as assistant coach at the University of Rhode Island in 2009, where he was directly responsible for the development and coaching of the pitching staff. He also served two seasons as an assistant coach at Niagara University, where he was responsible for the development and individual instruction in hitting. From 2004 to 2006, Stevens was the head varsity softball coach at Notre Dame Academy in Toledo, Ohio.

Stevens graduated from Bowling Green State University in 2004 with his bachelor's degree in sport management.
